Twenty-Second Sunday In Ordinary Time
When Peter tries to deny the Lord his Passion—"God forbid that such a thing ever happen to you!"—he, in effect, is denying the possibility of happiness itself. "It is only by freeing himself through suffering," said Pope Benedict XVI, "that man finds himself, that he finds his truth, his joy, his happiness." Therefore, we eagerly offer our bodies as a living sacrifice to God. For, no matter how much our sharing in Christ's cross may make us an object of the world's laughter and mockery, we know that our need to live our relationship with the Lord will become like fire burning in our hear. "The cross forces us to look upon the fact that we are loved by God. The cross becomes a new center of gravity for the bringing together of what is divided" (Pope Benedict XVI).
